The Yellow House by Sarah M. Broom (National Book Award winner) is about a family with a dozen children, and their house in New Orleans East. "The Yellow House is a brilliant memoir of place, class, race, the seeping rot of inequality, and the internalized shame that often follows. It is a transformative, deeply moving story from an unparalleled new voice of startling clarity, authority, and power."

A Monster Calls by Patrick Ness. At seven minutes past midnight, thirteen-year-old Conor wakes to find a monster outside his bedroom window. But it isn't the monster Conor's been expecting - he's been expecting the one from his nightmare, the nightmare he's had nearly every night since his mother started her treatments. The monster in his backyard is different. It wants something from Conor. Something terrible and dangerous. It wants the truth. Patrick Ness has spun a haunting and darkly funny novel of mischief, loss, and monsters both real and imagined.
